Rückansicht

A photograph taken from a high vantage point, likely a balcony, looking down into a courtyard. In the foreground, the left side is dominated by a large, steeply pitched roof with reddish-brown tiles. The courtyard below is paved with grey cobblestones. In the center of the courtyard, there is a small, rustic structure with a dark, gabled roof, possibly a well or a small shrine, surrounded by some potted plants and a wooden wheel. The buildings surrounding the courtyard are multi-story, with light-colored walls and dark window frames. The building on the right has a prominent dark, onion-shaped dome on its roof. The sky is a clear, pale blue. The word "Ausblick" is written in white, bold, sans-serif font in the bottom left corner.
